Patrick O. Tenbrink, M.D.

To Our Patients, Colleagues, Staff, Friends and Family:

We are pleased to welcome Patrick O. Tenbrink, M.D. to our practice. Dr. Tenbrink completed his undergraduate studies from Duke University with a bachelors in Evolutionary Anatomy and Anthropology and was awarded a degree with Honors due to his research in Cognitive Evolution.

Dr. Tenbrink went on to continue his interest in research at the Duke Eye Center and later on obtained a Masters in Biomedical Sciences and Biology. He then attended medical school at The University of Toledo College Of Medicine. Upon earning his medical degree, Dr. Tenbrink completed his Urology residency at The University of Maryland in Baltimore, Maryland.

Dr. Patrick Tenbrink shares our practice philosophy of providing comprehensive care through working with each patient to meet their own individual urologic health goals. He brings enthusiasm, poise, and a kind, gentle nature with him to our practice.

Dr. Tenbrink was raised in Indonesia until the age of six, after which he moved to Cincinnati, OH and excelled in Sports and Academics. He was recruited to Duke University to join their Track and Field team as a Pole-vaulter. It was in medical School that Dr. Tenbrink met his wife, Elizabeth Tenbrink. They have since started a loving family of two boys. Dr. Tenbrink has just moved to North Palm Beach and is excited to grow and become a compassionate and prominent figure in the community.
